

Bear Story

There was once a girl who loved bears. One day she found a bear. He was in the woods on his own. She really wanted a bear of her own and this was an opportunity to have one. She fed it and gave it water. Sometimes it followed her and sometimes it did not. He came to school and one day when he came out for a picnic with her, she found his mother. Had her adventure ended? Next morning when she got up she realised it was a dream after all.
